WHAT'S WHAT OF SAILING IN ROCK!

CEYS (Camel Estuary Youth Sailing) was established in 2006. Its aim is to teach local children - primarily 9-10 year olds recruited from local schools - by paying for their lessons. It is separate from the sailing club and the sailing centre, although the three work closely together.

RWSWC (Rock Sailing & Water Ski Club) is a members - only club based on the quayside opposite The Mariners at Rock. The club welcomes new boating members and also offers social membership to Cornwall residents who don't sail or ski. Children who have completed the CEYS course to RYA Stage 3 (Helms) or Stage 2 (Crew) are able to join as Local Family Juniors allowing them to develop their sailing and racing skills if they wish.

CAMEL SAILING & POWERBOAT CENTRE is a commercial RYA - endorsed tuition centre located close to the lifeboat station at Rock. It is this company that runs all the classes funded by CEYS and in due course, seasonally employs some CEYS graduates as instructors.

TREVOR EVANS 80th

Local legend, boat-builder, sailing instructor and raconteur Trevor Evans celebrated his 80th birthday in selfless style in October. First an art exhibition of his many friends' works, with proceeds to RNLI and CEYS; then a party at the Sailing Club with guests from as far afield as America - once again in aid of Trevor's two favourite charities.

His hard work raised £1627 for CEYS.
Trevor, we salute and thank you.

EASTER £500

Both sun and visitors were out in force, with our Easter street collection raising just over £500. Several would-be donors apologised that they no longer carried loose change - an issue for many small charities. One kind person had just enough for his daily bread, but upon seeing the length of the bakery queue decided to give it to CEYS instead! (Pictured: CEYS president Tim Lunt, the only person in Rock expecting rain at Easter!)

KEEP THOSE BOATS COMING

What have a Laser, a Topper and a Laser 2000 dinghy got in common? They were all generously donated to CEYS in 2019 and together raised nearly £3000. We would love to have kept them but for best tuition and cost control practices we stick to Fusions and sell donated boats to (largely) local users.

£1,005 - WHAT A GRAND SLAM!

A room-full of 52 Bridge enthusiasts scorned the poor weather, battled down to the Sailing Club and raised a grand-slamming £1005 for CEYS in the process.

Thanks go to everyone who helped, joined-in, prepared refreshments, provided the venue, and so much more; particularly to Wendy Kingsbury and Fiona Lunt the main organisers and to Peter Meredith the Bridge Director. Wendy K's raffle was as popular as ever, with bulbs to bubbly amongst the many prizes.

SPLASHED FOR CASH

The sailing club's annual "Big Splash" balcony jump into the sea was as successful as ever with proceeds this year to CEYS, RNLI and the Club itself. Thank you RSWSC for the £100 raised.

"BEST EXOTIC CURRY NIGHT" SERVES UP £2000

Over seventy guests, many dressed as brightly as the fairy lights, marigolds and fabrics about them, sat down to a lively meal at the Rock Institute in March.

Authentic Asian dishes were lovingly prepared by CEYS and friends at their own homes; extra hobs were imported for the night and a mountain of coins was offered up to the electricity meter to keep it all on song. Chicken Passanda, Nepalese Lamb and Aubergine Bhaji curries were voraciously well received along with the mango and berry desserts which followed.

An astonishing £2043.20 was achieved for CEYS, much of this down to support of local companies.

CEYS - THE SHRIMPERS' FRIENDS

Rock Shrimper sailors are known for their quiet support of young sailors just starting out and this year was no exception, with £280 raised at a Shrimper Week raffle alone.

MEET LYNNE

Good News - local resident Lynne Hough has joined the CEYS team. Newly-retired to Rock, Lynne has been part of the sailing fabric here for nearly 50 years. Once a dinghy sailor, she now races a Shrimper with husband Martin.

Lynne was until recently a 9-13yrs teacher, bringing a wealth of schools understanding as well as sailing knowledge.

WHERE NEXT?

CEYS typically aims for 9-10 year-olds as they are old enough to take (supervised) responsibility and know their own minds, generally are more available, and small enough to be taught two-up in a boat (more fun and cheaper to teach). Once taught they may just add it to their list of skills for later-on, sail privately with friends or within a sailing family, carry on with subsidised fun or race training at Camel Sailing & Powerboat Centre or join a sailing club. Rock sailing club (RSWSC) has a provision for junior members who are permitted to join Club races - and Club boats in which to race - but it can be quite a leap. CEYS is looking at ways to address this and would love to hear from anyone local with sailing experience who is willing and able to bring on CEYS graduates at Rock (email greenwoodtree@btinternet.com).

POP- UP, FEAST & DANCE

Fee's Food took the dull out of November with a sell-out Moroccan dream feast at the Institute, climaxing in a crescendo of disco-dance that just couldn't get any better, but then simply did. Produced to her top professional standards, Pop-Up Feast was the brainchild of Rock caterer Fee Turner and team, assisted by CEYS. With costs waived or drastically reduced and services, product and prizes generously gifted by local companies, over £2500 was raised for us.
